Sample Article for the Dispatch demo

Clinical Update | Reproductive Medicine | Demo content

This PDF is a placeholder used to demonstrate scheduled article emails.
In real use, upload the article you downloaded from the publisher’s website.

Summary

Each doctor on the list receives an individual email with this PDF attached.
The send can be scheduled once, daily or weekly, and every delivery is tracked.
Failed deliveries can be retried from the Activity page.

Key points

1. Upload the doctors list once as an Excel sheet; re-upload it to update.
2. Attach the article PDF and choose the schedule.
3. Send yourself a test, then let the schedule take over.
